HUMANITARIAN ASSISTANCE

- The UK Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office (UK FCDO) has deployed an assessment team from its UK Emergency Medical Team (UK EMT) to Haiti to better understand the medical needs caused by the earthquake, and a surgical team remains on standby to deploy once the needs are clear. MOD's Royal Fleet Auxiliary vessel WAVE KNIGHT is supporting the US contribution to the international humanitarian response by serving as a landing pad for US military helicopters responding to the crisis in Haiti. It will allow US helicopters to refuel as they fly to and from the island, extending their range and time available to support the disaster relief efforts.
- The French support to Haiti includes the French ship GERMINAL delivering 47 metric tons of cargo in Port-au-Prince on 21st August.
- The Directorate General of Civil Protection (DGPC) has received and distributed food products, hygiene products, mattresses, sunlamps, water, masks, reservoirs foldable and other products. The goods were distributed by the NEOC from the emergency warehouse and include donations from the Dominican Republic, Venezuela, Mexico, Colombia, Japan, Chile, Panama, Costa Rica, Spain, Brazil and Argentina. Other countries are also supporting several sectors involved in emergency management.
- The Pan American Development Foundation, Haiti (PADF) distributed 305 tarpaulins and 100 flashlights to Chardonnière and Port-à Piment (South).
- The Haitian Red Cross handled goods including woolen blankets, hygiene products, tarpaulins, jerrycans and kitchen utensils for 61 families. For its part, CRS has a stock of tarpaulins and kitchen kits capable of meeting the needs of 2,500 families in Camp-Perrin, Maniche and Cavaillon (South).

RELIEF SUPPORT

- The National Directorate for Drinking Water and Sanitation (Dinepa) received 500 cases of water and soft drinks from the private company Tropical SA. Its regional office (Orepa Sud) distributes drinking water by truck, with the support of UNICEF.
- Another private company, Culligan, donated 11 water trucks distributed among different town halls in the affected region. PADF distributed 800 water boxes and 5 sanitary kits to Chardonnière and Port-à Piment. JPHRO / CORE distributed 481 emergency kits for women, men and children in Cavaillon and Saint Louis of the South. CRS will soon provide hygiene products to 2,500 families in Camp-Perrin, Maniche and Cavaillon (South).
